

RULES FOR HANDLING USERS' COMPLAINTS AND CLAIMS OF USERS (COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE)

Each client of the HS Stavofin s.r.o. company (hereinafter to be referred to as the "Company") has the right to express its dissatisfaction with the provision of payment services, currency exchange services or conduct of employees of the Company in the form of withdrawal, complaints or claims.

For the purposes of these rules

- Withdrawal shall be understood a right of the Client to cancel a cash currency exchange without giving any reason in a period of three hours after the transaction, within normal opening hours of the exchange office, up to the maximum value of 1000 EUR or equivalent converted by the current exchange rate announced by the CNB.
- Claims shall be understood the Client's request to rectify, according to the Client's opinion, a malpractice of the Company in the provision of its services, particularly in the area of payments, such as wrongly executed Client's order to transfer funds as part of a payment service of the Company associated with the exchange of currencies.
- Complaints shall be understood the manifestation of the Client's dissatisfaction with the service provided, with the conduct of the Company's employee with the procedure of settling the claim, with the business terms and conditions etc.

Particulars of withdrawals, claims and complaints

Withdrawals

The Client has right to withdraw from an exchange contract without giving any reason in a period of three hours after the transaction, within normal opening hours of the exchange office, up to the maximum value of 1000 EUR or equivalent converted by the current exchange rate announced by the CNB for the day of transaction. Any time out of the standard opening hours of the company is excluded from the three-hour period. In case of the time-limit interruption, the minimum time to exercise the right is 30 minutes after the exchange office is reopened if the three-hour period has expired meanwhile. In order to exercise the Client's right to cancel the transaction, the time of the transaction printed on the receipt is decisive. Further information on the right of withdrawal can be found at www.hsstavofin.cz.

Claims

Each claim must include:

- Apposite description of the subject of the complaint,
- Client's identification data and Client's number, if assigned,
- Contact address or phone or email address for further queries of the Company,
- Statement that the information provided in the claim is true and complete,
- Client's signature. The claim shall be proven by the document which clearly identifies the claimed action, service or transaction (e.g. bank statement, a copy of the transfer order, receipt for the transaction, proof of cash operation etc.) and demonstrates the rightfulness of the claim. The Company is authorized to require the submission of additional documents and / or provision of additional information. In the event that the Client claims that it did not authorized the executed payment transaction of the payment services or that it was executed incorrectly, the Company shall demonstrate that the procedure which allows to verify that the payment order was given, that the payment transaction was properly recorded, accounted for, and that it was not affected by a technical failure or other malfunction.

Complaint

We recommend that the complaint includes:

- Apposite description of the subject of complaint,
- Client's identification data and Client's number, if assigned,
- Contact address or phone or email address for further queries of the Company . If possible, we recommend that the complaint is accompanied by the appropriate evidence on the subject of complaint.

Method of filing a withdrawal

The client shall withdraw from a currency exchange:

Always in person at the business premises where the transaction was made, upon presentation of a proof of exchange (deduction). If the Client has no receipt, the exchange office staff can use the available technical instruments to identify the transaction of the Client. Such withdrawal from a currency exchange shall be allowed only once. In the event of a currency exchange of value higher than 1000 EUR, the Client shall receive a substitute receipt which cannot be used for next withdrawal from the currency exchange. Upon withdrawal, the Client shall return the paid funds and the Client shall subsequently receive the equivalent converted using the exchange rate stated on the receipt. The Client may not return the funds in the original composition of the nominals, but the returned funds must be valid and undamaged.

Method of filing claims and complaints

The Client may file a claim and a complaint by one of the following methods:

- In person or in writing at the place of business of the Company. In the event of a personal filing, the Client shall receive a copy of the filed claim showing the date of receipt of the claim, which is confirmed by an employee of the Company and with a stamp of the Company,
- In writing to the address: HS STAVOFIN s.r.o. se Frýdlantská 185/6, 46001 Liberec, Czech Republic

Time limits for filing withdrawals, claims and complaints

Withdrawals

The right of withdrawal must be exercised within the statutory period of 3 hours after the currency exchange was made within the normal working hours of the exchange office. The period runs only when the business premises of the exchange office are open to customers. If the running period is interrupted, the right may still be exercised at least 30 minutes after the re-opening of the business premises.

Claims

Claims should be filed without undue delay after receipt of the information which is the incentive to file the claim –

e.g. an account statement, notification on the completed transaction, etc.

Recommended time limit for the complaint about:

- payment services is 30 days after the disbursement of funds to the accounts of the Company,
- cash exchange service is 7 days after the execution of the exchange,
- in other cases, 30 days from the execution of the transaction or service.

Claims about cash transactions should be made right at the cash desk of the exchange office of the Company. The maximum period for filing a claim about payment transactions is 13 months from the date of execution. Warning: The Client shall always check the cash and the correctness of the cash receipt (deduction, income or expense document) immediately. In the case, that the Client refuses to identify itself, when making a deposit of the amount up to the equivalent of 1000 EUR, the settlement of the claim may be hindered or result in the refusal of the claim.

Complaint

The complaint should be filed without undue delay. We recommend filing a complaint no later than within 30 calendar days from the date of origin of the incentive to file the complaint.

The deadlines for handling withdrawals, claims and complaints
